

This event was rescheduled to a bright, sunny day at a virtually deserted and calm Sasamat Lake. Beautiful reflections of the surrounding peaks greeted the group as we completed the loop trail. Several former members participated in this tradition which began in 1994 at English Bay. The water temperature was refreshing!

Thanks to Theresa for the fine photos.

Jim McCavour