

Buntzen Lake to Sasamat Lake - 27-Sept, 2020

It was a nice hiking day. With agreement of all of our participate, we changed our hike from Bunzen Lake View trail to this more demanding 'Buntzen Lake to Sasamat Lake' hike

There were four members and on guest on this beautiful lake to lake hike (Buntzen Lake and Sasamat Lake). Started at 9:0am from the Bunzen Lake parking lot. It was cloudy when we started our hike but soon became sunny weather. We first hiked up and up via Diez Vistas trail. Then started descending to Sasamat Lake. By 11 am, we reached picnic area by the Sasamat Lake beach. After lunch, we decided to walk around Sasamat Lake to digest our lunch before we ascending back to Bunzen Lake Ridge. By 2:30pm, we were back to our parking lot at Bunzen.
