to me, Jim

This is another scenic local experience! After a brisk and rocky ascent from Cypress Bowl, serene Cabin Lake is a peaceful spot for a break. Nearby at the Lions viewpoint, we could see from Vancouver Island to eastern Howe Sound. At Black Mountain summit, the vistas kept expanding. The group then proceeded to quiet and deserted Sam Lake for a refreshing swim and lunch. Next, we passed by Theagill Lake, and began the slow descent to the starting point. Bonus: No Bugs!

Thanks to Yoko for her fine photos.
