Old Buck Trail to Quarry Rock ~ December 19, 2024

We met in the light rain at Burnby. Rain had been forecasted. Four brave souls went anyway to start our Old Buck Trail to Quarry Rock hike.

We started our hike at 9:40am on Old Buck Trail. Hiked upward along Mount Seymour Parkway for some distance. Rain stopped when we reached the junction of 'Old Buck Trail' and 'Baden Powell Trail'. We then followed Baden Powell Trail toward the Deep Cove direction. At 11am, we reached our lunch destination 'Quarry Rock'. We had the whole Rock to ourselves. How wonderful. We enjoyed our lunch time with a good view of Indian Arms, Deep Cove and the comfortable dry weather. After lunch, we retraced the same route back to our cars. Great weather, great hike, great company!
