

Killarney Lake and Dorman Point, Bowen Island. – October 31, 2021

Bowen Island, only 15 minutes ferry ride away but feel like we are in a whole different world. Relaxing atmosphere, beautiful scenery, lake, view and friendly people. Autumn is a beautiful season to visit this island.

There were 14 of us (10 BOCers and 4 guests) came to this island hike/walk. At 10:30am, we set foot on Bowen Island. We hiked up to Dorman Point first when we were still full of energy and were treated with beautiful view. After Dorman Point, we started our second hike of the day, Killarney Lake. At 12:30pm, we had arrived the lake picnic area and enjoyed our lunch. Weather was nice and cool. Not a drop of rain whole day on the island. Any good weather in October is a bonus for us hikers.

After finish hiking Killarney Lake, we were back to town center around 3:20 pm which gave us a bit of time to walk around town enter. We caught the 4pm ferry home feeling happy and content.

Thanks to Jim for co-leading the hike, Ellen for being the end-person of the group, Shirley to count numbers to make sure we don't lost any person, thanks to our drivers: Catherine, Debbie, and Su-Jane.
