Despite it being a rainy day, 12 hikers (11 BOC members and 1 guest) met at 9am in Burnaby city hall and hiked Baden-Powell Trail (Lynn Headwater to Mosquito Creek session).

We started our hike at 9:40am from Lynn Headwater Regional Park Baden-Powell trail head. This section of the BP trail features lovely forest groves and sparkling creeks. We reached Mosquito Creek at around noon and had a relaxing lunch break. After lunch, we retraced back and finished our hike at around 2pm.

Our 2024 BP trail project report: As of today, we have now hiked from Cate's Park to Mosquito Creek

Many thanks to our team for a fun hiking day:
