

Buntzen To Sasamat Lake, April 15, 2022

There were four members on this beautiful lake to lake hike (Buntzen Lake and Sasamat Lake). Started at 9am from the Buntzen Lake parking lot. It was a bit foggy when we started our hike but soon became sunny weather. We first hiked up and up via Diez Vistas trail. Then started descending to Sasamat Lake. By 11am, we reached the picnic area by the Sasamat Lake beach. After lunch, we decided to walk around Sasamat Lake to digest our lunch before we ascended back to Buntzen Lake Ridge. By 3pm, we were back to our parking lot at Buntzen.
